Martha Tierney, Founder and Partner, Tierney Lawrence, LLC, Board Chair, Common Cause

Common Cause engaged the Tammy Dowley-Blackman Group to support our efforts to strategically align equity and democracy. This long-term consultancy helped the staff, National Governing Board, and State Advisory Board members consider how to embed equity into every facet of the organization, including hiring, onboarding, policies, Employee Resource Groups, Management Team development, board recruitment and training, and strategic planning. Tammy and her team were with us every step of the way as trusted experts and partners.

Alicia Adamson, Senior Vice President of Development, Engagement, United Way of Massachusetts Bay and Merrimack Valley

“What I valued most about Tammy was her mentorship and coaching she provided to my board and her ability to lead them towards an understanding of the impact they can make in their roles.”

Vanessa Briggs, former CEO, Alliance for Health Equity

Tammy Dowley-Blackman is an excellent source of knowledge. Her cross-sector experience offers an in-depth capacity to help position organizations to meet their mission. Her uncanny ability to engage with board of director members in a keynote meeting or via ongoing strategic advising leads to fresh perspectives and innovation, a transformed organizational culture, and substantive impact.

Sean Connor, Government Affairs Leadership, Lowe’s and Former Safety, Accessibility, and Economic Impact Policy Director, Lime

As a former client, I can’t speak highly enough about Tammy and her team. She’s thoughtful, knowledgeable and a high value addition to teams.

Sarah Grosvenor, Program Officer, Mott Philanthropic

I have appreciated Tammy’s ability to thoughtfully guide challenging conversations, providing insight and advice related to the needs of (our) cohort. Beyond her work with the group, I value her willingness to be a thought partner.

Ify Mora, Director of Program Operations, Margaret A. Cargill Philanthropies

Tammy ensured that every aspect of professional development was geared towards each participant’s success. My experience in the program helped me get to where I am today and I am deeply appreciative to Tammy for that opportunity and for her continued support.

Tammy is one of the most consummate professionals I know. She is a wonderful collaborator and an effective motivator, astute to the nuances of group dynamics and adept at working with a broad spectrum of people.

Tammy’s highly anticipated upcoming book Looking Forward Finding Your Leadership Path amplifies the stories, the voices, and the life and work approaches of Gen Z as they revolutionize the workforce.

Gen Z is the most diverse and technologically advanced generation to come ever. They are also the first generation in 50 years to join the workforce with limited to no professional experience, but they bring so much to the table.
